RE: Public Disclosure Request dated September 26, 2020

Dear Ms. Brululo,

In a request made to the Port Orchard Police Department dated and received on September 26, 2020 you have made the following public records request:

[One copy of each daily "InFOCUS-Information From Online Communities and Unclassified Sources" Fusion Center situational awareness publication, between the dates May 15, 2020 and June 15, 2020.]

Enclosed please find documents which are responsive to the above request. The record is being released without redactions and no information is being withheld.

The enclosed documents represent the City's diligent and good-faith efforts at complying with your request. At this time, the City believes that it has provided all documents requested. Please let us know as soon as possible if you believe that there are any other documents that you believe exist but did not receive.

Sincerely,

Cyndi Circelli
Records Manager
